Tamitik Status of Women

History

Tamitik Status of Women (TSW) was incorporated in December of 1976.

TSW began as a grass roots organization where women came together to share their lives and support each other.

TSW has since grown and is an active agency that provides programs and services focused on intervention and prevention of violence and poverty issues in our community.

TSW is very thankful to following for their generous donations and support.

- Aluminum City Telethon
- Local businesses
- The Community of Kitimat and Kitamaat Village
